

Thus I resolve

The Third and Fourth Booke of Ayres (1617)

Thomas Campion (1567 - 1620)

System 1: G G G C Am Dm B \flat E \flat Cm D G F F F B \flat F
Thus I re - solve and time hath taught me so, Since she is

System 2: Gm Am Gm Dm A D B \flat F Gm Cm D Gm F^{sus4} F B \flat
fayre and e - ver kinde to me, Though she be wilde and wan - ton-like in shew,

System 3: E \flat F Gm Cm D D G Cm G C⁵ Gm Am B \flat Dm Gm Gm
Those lit - tle staines in youth I will not see: That she be con-stant heav'n I

System 4: Cm Cm D D F Gm Gm Dm C B \flat F Gm D D G
oft im - plore; If pray'rs pre-vaile not, I can doe no more.

2. Palme tree the more you presse, the more it growes,
 Leave it alone it will not much exceede:
 Free beauty if you strive to yoke, you lose,
 And for affection strange distaste you breede.
 What Nature hath not taught no Arte can frame;
 Wilde borne be wilde still, though by force made tame.