

Break now my heart and dye

The Third and Fourth Booke of Ayres (1617)

Thomas Campion (1567 - 1620)

Chords: Gm Gm Gm Cm F D Gm D^{sus4} D G Dm B \flat Cm

Lyrics: Breake now my heart and dye, Oh no, oh no, she may re - lent. Should she now
Let my des-paire pre-vayle, oh stay, oh stay, hope is not spent.

Chords: B \flat F Gm Cm D B \flat F^{sus4} F B \flat F B \flat Gm Cm D Gm D^{sus4} D G

Lyrics: fixe_one smile on thee, where were despaire? The losse is but ea - sie which.smiles can re payre.
A stranger would please thee if she were as fayre.

2. Her must I love or none, so sweet none breathes as shee,
The more is my despayre, alas shee loves not mee:
But cannot time make way for love through ribs of steele?
The Grecian enchanted all parts but the heele,
At last a shaft daunted which his hart did feele.